Apprentice Support Award 2022

Overview:

Traineeships and apprenticeships are some of the most beneficial and rewarding pathways an employee can integrate and move up and through their career. These are usually run over many years, and it is those businesses who support apprentices all the way through, either through their programming structure or business culture that really creates one of the best ways to prepare local people for work; enable regional businesses to build the skills they need to their standards; and put people onto successful career pathways.

Entry Criteria:

- To enter this category, your business must be operating in the Mid West Region.
- The business must have been trading for a minimum of one full financial year.
- The business must employ, support, and encourage training through an apprenticeship, internship and or traineeships.
